THE FEAR DANCE

THE FEAR DANCE

Step 5: Discuss How This Plays Out In Your Conflicts

How Do You Stop The Fear Cycle?

1. Accept the fact that "my journey" – to become the man or woman God created and called me to be – is 100% my Being an adult means that I am fully capable of being personally and fully responsible for my own mental, spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being.

2. Identify and control what I can control and surrender what I can't:

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference" (Serenity Prayer)

a. My focus should first be on me and my stuff.

(Matt. 7:2-5) (2) For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. (3) And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (4) Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? (5) Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

- b. I can control my buttons and how I react to others.
- c. Release our loved ones from being responsible for us.

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOUR FEAR BUTTONS GET PUSHED

1) Create Space - either internally or physically

(James 1:19) Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

- 2) Identify your emotions, feelings, buttons, fears, hurts, etc.
 - 1. Identify the lies I am believing
 - 2. Choose to believe what is true based on what God says about
 - 3. Ask yourself: what did I do to contribute to my buttons getting pushed or staying pushed?
 - 4. Choose to Call time out and decide together on a time to return.

(Gal 5:1)

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

(2Tim 1:7)

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

(Rom 12:18)

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

(Phil. 4:13)

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

(Gal. 6:5)

For every man shall bear his own burden.

Fears can provide useful information when they are uncovered, acknowledged and addressed. For your heart to heal you must first discover what has been written on your heart. Consider this when discussing the following questions.

- What are the topics most common in your conflicts?
- Which core fears did you identify after completing the Discovering Your Core Fear Buttons exercise?

Most Important Feeling (Star)
Additional Feelings

- Fears (buttons) are often the result of negative messages written on the "tablets of our" Can you identify several of the negative messages from your past? Where did they come from? What does the Lord say about you and these messages?
- When you and your spouse are in the "fear cycle," what are your reactions?
- Your reaction is intended to get a certain What result are you trying to achieve through your reaction? What is motivating that desired result?
- It is important to realize that we bring our half of the Fear Dance (our "buttons" and our "reactions") into every relationship, even our relationship with The good news is God doesn't have any buttons and therefore isn't reactive. Reflect on how your "buttons/ fears" and "reactions" impact your spiritual journey.

SAFETY DISCUSSION

As we learn about our fear dance, we need to recognize that our "buttons" cause us to feel unsafe and we react because we don't like the way we feel. Our reactions generally push our spouses "buttons" causing them to feel unsafe and we begin to spin around and around. Discuss, as a couple, how this Fear Cycle affects your ability to keep your heart open to each other.
