Parenting Covenant Promises

I love you and I am glad you were born.

God created you for this family; you belong with us. You, therefore, share in our blessings and responsibilities.

Your needs are important to me; I will nurture, care, and protect you.

God created you a feeling being. I will help guide you in learning healthy, appropriate ways to express yourself.

As you develop in Christlikeness, I commit to encouraging you and supporting you in all your efforts with all my resources.

I will help you reflect God's glory in a unique manner that He created you to do so.

Just as God disciplines us for our good, without shame, I will discipline you.

I will help you learn to make wise choices and also help you understand that all choices have consequences

I will help you develop your God-given responsibility, self-control, and freedom in setting limits for your soul, heart, strength and mind.

I will use all my resources to love you to give God glory.

Thank You!
